NOMINEES FOR THE 36th ANNUAL
NEWS & DOCUMENTARY EMMY® AWARDS
ANNOUNCED

Award Presentation at David Geffen Hall
At Lincoln Center

New York, N.Y. – July 22, 2015 – Nominations for the 36th Annual News and Documentary Emmy® Awards were announced today by the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS). The News & Documentary Emmy® Awards will be presented on Monday, September 28th, 2015, at a ceremony at Lincoln Center’s David Geffen Hall (formerly Avery Fisher Hall, home of the New York Philharmonic), located at Lincoln Center on Broadway on the West Side of Manhattan in New York City. The event will be attended by more than 1,400 television and news media industry executives, news and documentary producers and journalists. Emmy® Awards will be presented in 45 categories.

“Our mandate is to award excellence,” said Bob Mauro, President, NATAS, “and these nominations honor the men and women in broadcast journalism who excel at keeping us informed, often at the risk of their own lives. Technological innovation is disrupting old business models while creating incredible opportunities to innovate. It’s an exciting time to be in the news business, and we are proud to honor those who are doing excellent work while pushing the profession to change and grow.”

“Now in its 36th year, the News & Documentary Emmy® Awards continues its mission of honoring the documentary films, news reports, and multimedia projects that exemplify the best of broadcast journalism,” said David Winn, Senior Vice President, News & Documentary Emmy Awards. “In addition we are extremely pleased to be presenting this year’s Emmy Awards at Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts’ David Geffen Hall, one of the crown jewels of culture in New York City.”

The 36th Annual News & Documentary Emmy® Awards honors programming distributed during the calendar year 2014.

The list of nominees for the 36th Annual News and Documentary Emmy® Awards is also available on the National Television Academy's website: www.emmyonline.tv
